

Used by hundreds of companies as a means of making rags, disposable wipes and towels, Eastman's rag cutter also has a place at manufacturing facilities seeking solutions for repurposing expensive scrap materials.

- Equipped with a heavy-duty lubricated and sealed motor
- Features built-in sharpener and button remover
- Features telescopic height adjustment
- Available in single or dual workstation models
- Adaptable to many materials and applications

Features

Double the Production

Accommodation of two operators working on two workstations, both of which include an independent knife guard, sharpener and button removal trough

Prevented Lint Penetration

Eliminated lint penetration via the enclosed motor

Durability

Built with the highest grade materials available

Specifications

Motors or Power	110v, 1ph, 50/60Hz 220v, 1ph, 50/60Hz 380v, 3ph, 50Hz
Horsepower	0.50hp
Weight	73lbs. (33.1kg)
Blades	Standard: Carbon Steel Optional: High Speed Steel, Grooved Blade, PTFE Coated
Standard Features	Twin Cutting Heads
Options	Single Cutting Head
Blade Size	6in. (15.2cm)
Cutting Capacity	1.38in (3.5cm)
Disclaimer: Achievable speeds and accelerations are tool-, material- and thickness dependent. All indicated speeds, dimensions, weights and performance data are approximate and subject to change without notice.	